Project Scope

What the user say they need?

A website to provide information about tourist places and hotels.

What they actually need?

- A simple and responsive UX friendly website
- A website capable of providing information about tourist places and hotels
- Capabilities of finding hotels using google maps
- Capabilities of contacting them using contact form

What they don't know they need?

The option for website to grow and offer option for transportation services, tourist instruction services and links of other tourist places, hotels in neighbor province and in any other part of the country.